

A little help from you is a big help for others

On June 12th, in observance of World Day Against Child Labour, LittleBigHelp India Trust conducted community outreach activities to raise awareness and combat child labour, highlighting the importance of eradicating child labour and ensuring children's rights to education and a safe childhood.

World Day Against Child Labour

On June 21st, in celebration of International Yoga Day, LittleBigHelp India Trust organized a special event to promote the physical and mental well-being of children. Participants engaged in various yoga sessions led by experienced instructors, emphasizing the benefits of yoga for health, relaxation, and overall wellness & aligning with LittleBigHelp's commitment to holistic development and well-being.

A great initiative has been taken by LittleBigHelp India Trust, where the Youth Skilling training participants are being encouraged to create piggy banks, thereby instilling the importance of the value of money. This, in turn, lays the foundation for sound financial practices from an early adolescent phase. Through this, trainees can avoid unnecessary purchases and accumulate savings for future needs. This initiative should hopefully promote a culture of financial responsibility and planning.
